DECISION ON ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COSTS<sup>1</sup>

On September 1, 2021, Lerma-Marie Escobar Remias filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.<sup>2</sup> (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration a defined Table injury, or in the alternative a caused-in-fact-injury, after receiving the tetanus, diphtheria, and acellular pertussis on March 18, 2021. Petition, ECF No. 1. On April 16, 2024, I issued a decision awarding compensation to Petitioner based on the parties' stipulation. ECF No. 37.

If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

Petitioner has now filed a motion for attorney's fees and costs, requesting an award of $32,953.64 (representing $32,175.00 in fees plus $778.64 in costs). Application for Attorneys' Fees and Costs ("Motion") filed September 18, 2024. ECF No. 42. Furthermore, Petitioner filed a signed statement representing that Petitioner incurred no personal out-of-pocket expenses. Id. at 2.

Respondent reacted to the motion on September 19, 2024, indicating that he is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs are met in this case but deferring resolution of the amount to be awarded to my discretion. Motion at 2-4, ECF No. 43. Petitioner filed a reply requesting an award of fees and costs as indicated in the Motion. ECF No. 44.

I have reviewed the billing records submitted with Petitioner's request. The rates requested for work performed through the end of 2024 are reasonable and consistent with our prior determinations, and will therefore be adopted.

However, a few of the tasks performed by attorneys in this matter are more properly billed using a paralegal rate.<sup>3</sup> "Tasks that can be completed by a paralegal or a legal assistant should not be billed at an attorney's rate." Riggins v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. 99-382V, 2009 WL 3319818, at *21 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. June 15, 2009). "[T]he rate at which such work is compensated turns not on who ultimately performed the task but instead turns on the nature of the task performed." Doe/11 v. Sec'y of Health & Hum. Servs., No. XX-XXXXV, 2010 WL 529425, at *9 (Fed. Cl. Spec. Mstr. Jan. 29, 2010). Although these billing entries are reasonable, they must be charged at a reduced rate comparable to that of a paralegal. Application of the foregoing reduces the amount of fees to be awarded by $407.20.<sup>4</sup>

Petitioner has otherwise provided supporting documentation for all claimed costs. ECF No. 42-2. Respondent offered no specific objection to the rates or amounts sought. I find the requested costs reasonable and hereby award them in full.

<sup>3</sup> Entries considered paralegal in nature include drafting and filing basic documents such as an exhibit list, PAR Questionnaire, notice of filing exhibit list, statement of completion, cover sheet, joint notices not to seek review, and filing medical records. See billing entries dated: 3/18/22 (three entries); 4/22/24; 4/29/24. ECF No. 42.

<sup>4</sup> This amount consists of  $($420 - $177 = $243 \times 1.20 \text{ hrs.}) + ($486 - $197 = $289 \times 0.40 \text{ hrs.}) = $407.20$ .

CONCLUSION

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorney's fees and costs for successful claimants. Section 15(e). Accordingly, I hereby GRANT in part, Petitioner's Motion for attorney's fees and costs. Petitioner is awarded attorneys' fees and costs in the total amount of $32,546.44 (representing $31,767.80 in fees plus $778.64 in costs) to be paid through an ACH deposit to Petitioner's counsel's IOLTA account for prompt disbursement. In the absence of a timely-filed motion for review (see Appendix B to the Rules of the Court), the Clerk of Court shall enter judgment in accordance with this decision.<sup>5</sup>
